Dear Natalia Palii,

The latest impact factors* for Elsevier's Physics and Astronomy journals have just been released.

The highlights show that key Elsevier titles in this field maintain leadership, with Physics Reports at 17.752, Physics Letters B at 5.083, Surface Science Reports up to 13.462 and the Journal of Computational Physics at 2.369.

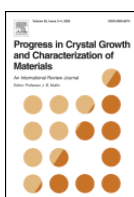

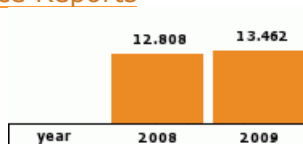

After just three years of publication, Physics of Life Reviews hits 3.773.
