+++ ALSO IMPORTANT for HZB NEUTRON USERS +++

Please, note

-->> From October 2010 to March 2011, our reactor will be shut down for the installation of a new generation cold neutron source. In addition, a major upgrade project will be launched for the Neutron Guide Hall I (NGHI). It is planned to re-start the reactor in April 2011, first with thermal neutrons and with selected "cold instruments". Instruments located in the NGH1 will be under construction/commissioning after the re-start of the reactor and will only gradually be available.

-->> If you plan to do experiments in our Experimental Hall, it is advisable to check the status of your clearance for free access in good time (for more information please see the download section of http://www.helmholtz-berlin.de/users/neutrons/user-info/call-for-proposals\_en.html)

-->> The next meeting of the HZB Scientific Selection Panel will be held on 5 November
