

THE CONFERENCE FOR YOUNG SCIENTISTS IN CERAMICS

The Tenth Students Meeting SM-2013

Faculty of Technology
University of Novi Sad

November 6-9, 2013.

The main goals of this traditional Meeting are promotion of work done by young researchers and closer international contacts between students from different universities and institutes, through exchange of knowledge, ideas and experiences in the field of ceramics. The authors of all presented papers will be students (primarily focused on masters, Ph.D. and young postdoctoral students but there is no limitation on categories and age of the participants).
